

Competitor Fines

Player, Coach, and Manager Fines

In cooperation and with the support of the World Curling Players Association, the Canadian Curling Association and Curl BC have introduced a fine system that consists of:

s

1. On-ice Conduct

- i. Use of inappropriate language to the point that it is offensive.
- ii. Making an obscene gesture that is deemed inappropriate by the Chief Umpire.
- iii. Being abusive to anyone involved with the event.
- iv. Refusing to talk to an accredited member of the media.
- v. Refusing to wear an RF microphone. (Televised games only)
- vi. Refusing to cooperate with the televising network. (Televised games only)
- vii. Dress code violation (including the use of unapproved logos or sponsorships on clothing or equipment)
 - 1st Offence Fine from $150.00- $500.00.
 - 2nd Offence Fine from $500.00- $1000.00.
 - 3rd Offence Fine up to $1000.00 and suspension.

2. Refusing to take a directive given by a Curl BC Official.

- 1st Offence Fine from $300.00- $600.00.
- 2nd Offence Fine from $600.00- $1000.00.
- 3rd Offence Fine up to $1000.00 and suspension.

3. Conceding a game before the time frame designated by Curl BC without permission.

- 1st Offence Fine $500.00 - $1000.00 for each member of the team on the ice.

4. Off-Ice Activity

Any conduct considered to be inappropriate by Curl BC.

- 1st Offence Fine from $300.00- $600.00.
- 2nd Offence Fine from $600.00- $1000.00.

A suspension may also be levied in association with these fines. For all Curl BC owned or managed events from which athletes are eligible to receive funds, fines shall be collected from the amount of money owed the team at the conclusion of the event. For other Curl BC events, any fines levied shall be collected prior to the athlete's participation in another Curl BC event. All funds collected through fines shall be contributed to the Curling For Life Endowment Fund.

APPEAL PROCESS:

Any appeal of the fines or suspension imposed, are to be forwarded to:

Scott Braley
CURL BC

2001A – 3713 Kensington Ave
Burnaby, BC V5B 0A7

OR

SBraley@curlbc.ca

The appeal must include full details of the identified infraction.

For Officials: If imposing a fine or suspension the second page must be completed and forwarded with your Officials Report.

